NOCA Notes
February 15, 2018

Travelers 2018 NOCA Men's Provincial Winners:

Congratulations to Team Brad Jacobs from the Community First Curling Centre in Sault Ste. Marie. Team Jacobs earned the NOCA Men's Provincial title in a very tight game against the Tanner Horgan rink and will now represent Northern Ontario at the Tim Hortons Brier March 3-11 in Regina.

2018 Amethyst Junior Curling Camp:

Registration is now open for the 2018 Amethyst Junior Curling Camp which will take place July 2-6, 2018 in North Bay. We are excited to announce that there will once again be a bus service from Thunder Bay to North Bay and back (through Nipigon, along Hwy 11 to Cochrane, through New Liskeard to North Bay). Information about the camp, registration, and the bus is available on the NOCA and Amethyst websites. Don't miss this great opportunity to learn from the experts, and make some new friends!

Mixed Doubles Provincial:

You watched it on TV when Lawes and Morris won gold – and maybe you've tried it at your club. Mixed Doubles is an exciting, fast paced, and athletic new version of our sport. The Mixed Doubles Provincial takes place March 8-11 in Atikokan. Registration closes at NOON Friday February 16th. Register here

2018 NOCA Wheelchair Provincials:

This weekend two teams will compete in Kenora for the title of Northern Ontario Wheelchair Curling Champions. The Lorin Gan rink from the Kenora CC, and the Doug Dean rink from the Fort William CC will battle it out to see who will represent NOCA at the Canadian Wheelchair Curling Championships in Leduc, AB., March 26 – April 1. 2017-18 NOCA Awards - Deadline February 28th:

Don't forget to nominate someone at your club for one of the NOCA Annual Awards. Recognition will be given in four categories: NOCA Volunteer Awards (3), NOCA Club Recognition Award (1), NOCA Honorary Membership (unlimited), and NOCA Coach Awards (2).

Nomination Deadline is February 28th. Awards Information

Curling Canada National Curling Club Survey:

Curling Canada last surveyed member clubs in the provinces and territories in 2003-04. Much has happened in the last 14-15 years to significantly alter the Canadian curling landscape and a new survey is now being conducted. Any club who completes the survey will receive tickets to one of the 2018-19 Curling Canada Championships.

The deadline to complete the survey is March 28th, but any NOCA Club completing the survey by March 1st will be placed into a contest for 2 event ticket packages to the World Women's Curling Championships in North Bay March 17-25. An email went out to all NOCA Club Delegates and Managers but if you didn't receive notice, please click here to complete the survey for your club. Only one response per club please.

Travelers Curling Club Region Playdowns:

This weekend will see 5 regional events for the Travelers Curling Club Regional playdowns. One team per gender will advance from the Regions to the Provincial Championship at the Community First CC March 22-25. Online Scores: Region 1 Region 2 Region 3 Region 4 Region 5

Upcoming Deadlines:

- Mixed Doubles Provincial – February 16th
- Mixed Provincial – March 16th
- Awards Nominations – February 28th
- Jet Ice Logo Contest – March 1st
